Ruth - maybe we should get Pres Jr a tie-in with doll houses or Xmas sometime. If you think so, so ahead

To Whom It May Concern:

In 1985 I wrote your Museum about a Lincoln doll that I had in my possession and at the time you were involved in a purchase of another major acquisition. Since then I discovered that one of Lincolns ears was damaged a little, & had been camouflaged by hair pasted over the spot. Under these circumstances I would be willing to accept 75$ instead of the $100 original price if you are at all interested at this later date.

Sincerely
Kathy Doe

approx 20½"
It fits into a dresser drawer nicely for storage purposes. Would send it on approval if desired.

Ms. Kitty Doe

Dear Ms. Doe:

The Director, Mark E. Neely, Jr., is interested in acquiring your Lincoln doll. Please ship it along with an invoice and we will remit promptly. Also, please send us any information you have on the doll, such as year, who made it, and where it came from.

You will note that we have changed our name to The Lincoln Museum but everything else remains the same.

Sincerely,

Ruth E. Cook
